Happiest Students in the nation
The Princeton Review, 2026

With 250+ student organizations, how could you ever get bored? But when you do have time on your hands, check out one of the hundreds of events on campus each year, including big-time performers who love it here too.

A big welcome with
A PLACE FOR EVERYONE.

Two brothers who were teachers and preachers in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) founded TCU more than 150 YEARS ago, dreaming of a university that valued open inquiry and academic excellence. We still uphold these values today, welcoming students to a community that embraces both faith and reason. Our students take one religion course to fulfill their core curriculum requirements.
