A big welcome with
A PLACE FOR EVERYONE.

Two brothers who were teachers and preachers in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) founded TCU more than 150 YEARS ago, dreaming of a university that valued open inquiry and academic excellence. We still uphold these values today, welcoming students to a community that embraces both faith and reason. Our students take one religion course to fulfill their core curriculum requirements.

We're big on your

FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE.

When you kick off your first year at TCU, you won't miss a beat. With orientation and Frog Camp, you'll meet your first friends, connect with upper-division mentors and get your first taste of TCU traditions. Frogs First is a weekend-long welcome to TCU! A semester-long class, Introduction to University Life, gives you strategies for academic success and thriving on campus.

Our best-in-class first-year experience makes this one big unforgettable year.
